

Villa Graziella Brings Italy to Holiday Shopping

The Perfect Way to Say 'I Love You' To Food Lovers During the Holiday

CHICAGO (Oct. 24, 2022) – Villa Graziella, a Chicago-based Italian food product company, created the perfect gift to get food lovers for the 2022 Holiday season. Imported from Tuscany, Italy, gift sets include extra virgin olive oil, balsamic vinegar, and arrays of Tuscan herb seasoning blends. All products are organic certified, and gift sets come in both full-sized and discovery sized packages. Owner and CEO Consuelo Martinez-Quattrocchi has provided a fantastic way to giving a fellow food lover the opportunity to make their kitchen feel like their own Little Italy.

With the belief that, “great tasting food and wine can also be good for us, that both can thrive together... organic certified quality is better for us and our environment”, Consuelo Martinez-Quattrocchi commits to helping others lead a more sustainable life through Villa Graziella’s products. The wines and olive oil come from traditions of organic certified agriculture. Located in Montespertoli, in the heart of Tuscany, the farm uses nothing but mineral and nutrient soil.

Positive Customer Impact

With Villa Graziella’s gift sets, shoppers have an easy opportunity to create excitement and adventure into the kitchens of friends and loved ones. Not only are the shoppers able to give a sense of home and flavor during the holidays, but they can buy these gift sets knowing that they are giving a sustainable, and positively impactful gift of nutrients and years of tradition.

Product Availability

Villa Graziella's gift sets can be found online on their independent website, both the discovery size, and the full size sets. Shoppers can also find these products at small grocery stores throughout the Chicagoland area.
